Dear Church and Praying Friends,

Philippians 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

Winter is here and we are in the full swing of things. The snow seems to be falling quite regularly now and the roads have been very slick. I praise the Lord for our old truck and 4-wheel drive. When we are out, the snowdrifts make it rough on front-wheel drives.

The ministry is going well and we are trying to do a few new things this year. We are working to get on the schedule for a Gospel Sing downtown at the Promenade. We have other churches of like faith, within a few hours of us, who are interested in coming to help with this. We also started a forth Sunday fellowship with a light supper of soup and sandwiches. It went well this month and hopes to expand it in the future. For me, the only drawback is trying to sing a lot after eating then preaching.

We have been able to get the bus back ready for inspection but has proven challenging, as our church driveway is a sheet of ice and it does not want to climb out of the parking lot (The Lord knows). We are looking forward to getting back on the road and seeing how the Lord is going to bless in this area. The young man who preached for us while we were gone is getting married in February and we look forward to him and his wife being here to help in the ministry with the young people.

It is always a blessing to get to witness to people here. One opportunity was at Christmas time while in a store. The man was in need of answers to questions and I got to spend about an hour with him and start a friendship. I was able to get the gospel in and he did not outright push me away, as happens in so many cases here, so that was a huge blessing. We are praying that his family will get saved soon. Sarah also had a blessing in handing out a tract at the Canadian institution (Tim Horton's), the lady received it and said, "I have read this and it is great, we need more of these out there." She claimed Christ as Savior and said she goes to another church in the area but will give the tract to someone else and pray it brings fruit.

Lastly, WE THANK God for answers to prayer. The Lord led our son Bradley and a wonderful Christian girl together while in Bible College, and they will be getting married in May of this year. Also, our paper work has been mailed in for Permanent Residence and we are waiting on a processing number from Canada Immigration. We are praying everything will go through this time with no problems. Thank you again for your prayers and support.

Look what the first winter storm brought in! As a winter storm brews and the tide comes in and out, so do the lobster. You just have to grab them before the waves take them back out. It was a bit cold and wet, but well worth it.

Second big winter storm of the year.

Our four youngest. They grow up all too fast.
